Being Senior Citizens the prospect of selling a home for the very first time was, we admit, daunting the choice of Real Estate Agents being foremost of our worries. Fortunately, a number of our friends and contacts suggested, YPA and in particular the name of Bassam Tofaili at YPA. Thus we made the decision to give them a try.

Our greeting on entering the premises of YPA was very warm and friendly, giving us confidence that our choice was right. Although Bassam was not in the office at that time, we left our phone details and within an hour, Bassam was on the phone to us and arranged to meet us in our home on Friday (two days later). This set the tone for our dealings with YPA and Bassam.

After receiving numerous calls from Bassam confirming our meeting and advising us when his other meetings became extended we at last met what was to prove to be a charming but veritable ball of boundless energy and
