Here is a prime example of how building just does not make sense at the moment. Why would you build, when all the headaches are taken care of with this chic modern residence, innovative by design yet packed with quality upmarket finishes throughout! Comprising a four bedroom plus study floor plan featuring a huge master bedroom finished with walk in robes and highlighted ensuite complete with double shower and double basin vanity. High ceilings feature throughout, while the central kitchen has been detailed with quality appointments entailing ceaser stone bench tops, an upgraded stainless steel 900mm freestanding oven and matching canopy range hood, dishwasher and even a walk in pantry. This is all in perfect view of the everyday living areas with the meals and living rooms adjacent while the alfresco continues outdoors, an ideal area for BBQ's and entertaining. An enclosable home theatre room also features here allowing
