This young and beautifully presented double story home is host to a wide variety of extras that will appeal to those seeking modern lifestyle living. From the exterior, this home immediately stands out from the rest, due to the amount of light that saturates this wonderful structure. Upon entrance, the textured flooring leads you to the guest suite and onto the theatre, with surround sound system, and family living space. The spacious modern kitchen rivals larger homes as it includes a 40mm stone bench top and island bench and is finished with white cabinetry adding more class into an already elegant home. Finishing off the kitchen with an impressive touch are high-class stainless-steel appliances, dishwasher and walk in pantry. The adjoining meals and living areas that looks out on to a spacious deck and backyard fills the home with light and makes watching the kids a breeze with such a well thought out floor plan. A low maintenance backyard, generous in size with plenty of
