This absolutely charming home will wrap its arms around you with feelings of openness and a homely atmosphere. Built to last, this beautiful property stands out from the crowd to represent a true oasis for the modern family. From the grand lounge room (boasting soaring ceilings, bay window and a feature fireplace) to the stunning alfresco zones, this enchanting property delivers on many levels. Offering separately zoned living options over a split-level design, this home encompasses four large bedrooms, three bathrooms, plus cavernous living spaces, including a flexible rumpus room/ home gymnasium on the lower level that could also be converted to a large theatre room. Sitting wide on the block up a meandering driveway, a double garage is positioned to the left, revealing a beautiful, inviting facade. Gated side access provides additional room for the boat/caravan.
