A property where the lines between indoors and outdoors enmesh to create a harmonious in which to live, love and entertain, Urushi House sits privately in its coastal surroundings. Inspired by Japanese architecture, this builders own home is awash with designer finishes and effortlessly fuses playfulness and practicality.

Featuring:

Secluded from the street with the property well set back and fringed by native ti-trees

Long driveway leading to both the cleverly-obscured garage and the entrance to this unique home
