This 4 bedroom plus study home offered today will give any family space to move with comfort and security. The master bedroom will give Mum and Dad never before seen room to relax with dual walk in robes and private ensuite. The open living starts from the second you open the front door and flows around the central kitchen, with butlers pantry consisting of side by side stainless steel ovens and dishwasher, stone bench top, glass splash back and plenty of cupboard space.

Without giving away too much, this 3 year old Porter Davies built home was well thought out before construction, and will stand head and shoulders above what is on the market to come.
