An entertainer's dream is perhaps the most apt way to describe this stunning two-storey family home, tucked at the end of a quiet cul de sac in a location designed for premium family living.

A sensational renovation has transformed a quaint home into a contemporary four-bedroom masterpiece, successfully capturing the essence of period-inspired living while infusing a splash of modern magnificence.

The home's timeless appeal is evidenced in the high ceilings, ceiling roses, polished timber floorboards and classically designed cornices and architraves, while two sensational outdoor settings earns the home five-star entertaining credentials.

Four separate living areas offer a superb mix of formal and
