4 2 3

Situated in the amazing Oaklands Junction estate, this ranch style property presents the perfect opportunity to buy into a great country lifestyle, in an area that is still close to the city. Sitting on just over 1 acre of land this family home features three bedrooms with an optional fourth or study. The master suite includes a walk in robe and ensuite with the other bedrooms having built in robes. As you walk through the front entry you'll find the study or fourth bedroom to your right which has the CCTV camera monitoring system not to mention a great outlook onto the front area of the property. The formal lounge and dining is spacious with a charm about it that is rarely found in new homes built these days. The kitchen features granite benchtops, stainless steel appliances and pantry. With a long driveway and three car garage at the end, there is no shortage of parking space for any vehicles not to mention another shed out the back of the lot with brick flooring for
