5 2 2

One of the youngest homes on offer in Westmeadows, offering cutting-edge design and added excitement of another dimension when you step beyond the facade into this impressive home. Greeted by high ceilings throughout, and beautiful herringbone parquet flooring, this is one you will want to call home. The entrance level comprises 4 bedrooms, the master featuring a walk-through robe and palatial ensuite with double vanity, plus plenty of storage. The main bathroom and powder room service two further bedrooms with built-in robes, and central laundry and linen closet provide all the storage you will need.

The spacious and functional floorplan opens onto a large, well-appointed kitchen with stainless steel appliances, with room to seat the family around the generous island bench, which flows into the adjoining meals and living areas, and a bright airy study. Take the solid timber stairs down to the
